HAVDALAH AFTER: 8:29 PM

PARSHAT AHARE MOT describes the atonement rite for Yom Kippur; it also presents laws which deal with unlawful marriages. Both sections of Ahare Mot are also read on Yom Kippur. The Rabbis explained this combination of two diverse themes by noting that the act of atonement is never complete by the purification rite alone - only when the values expressed in the purification ritual become part of the family's life. Repentance and moral excellence begin at home.
