Parashat TETSAVEH... is both a continuation of the previous parashah and a separate unit with a theme of its own. This Biblical portion is a continuation in that it describes further elements that were necessary for the fulfillment of Israel's sacrificial cult. Parashat Tetsaveh is a separate unit in that it highlights the Priest's sacred garments which were a symbol of his special role as a spiritual leader.

Jews throughout the ages have ushered in Purim with the reading of the Megillah in synagogue. Services on Thursday Eve, March 13 begin at 7:30 pm in the Main Sanctuary. The other mitzvot of Purim are: sending food gifts to friends (mishloah manot) and giving charity to the less fortunate (matanot la'evyonim). During the daytime on Purim one is obligated to eat a festive meal (se'udat mitzvah). You might consider attending Minyan at 8:00 am on Friday, March 14 to hear the daytime Megillah reading and enjoy the festive breakfast immediately after the service.
